2 Targets for 2027 and participant profile

Antalya EduCa 2027 serves as an international bridge connecting Europe and the Mediterranean basin with Eurasia, the Middle East, the Americas and other continents.
Antalya EduCa 2027 brings together international education, academic and professional qualification recognition, visas and residence permits, global mobility, EU grant projects, investment abroad and professional consultancy in one programme.
The 2027 targets are 30 countries, 80–100 participating institutions and stakeholders, more than 1,500 visitors and over 200 scheduled B2B meetings. These figures are organisational targets and do not represent confirmed participation.
Who can participate

1. Universities, colleges, private and secondary schools, research institutes and technology parks
2. Study abroad, language schools and courses, foundation and vocational education centres
3. Academic and professional qualification recognition consultants, career centres, HR and employment agencies
4. Global mobility and visa consultancies, immigration, residence permit and investment consultants
5. EU grant project operators, international NGOs, foundations, public institutions and municipalities
6. Consulates, embassies and diplomatic missions in Türkiye
7. Educational technology, software, corporate management and logistics providers

Free visitor admission

Admission is free for visitors and guests on both event days. Students, parents, teachers, academics, graduates, jobseekers, working adults and relevant sector representatives may attend. The event is open to all visitors aged 10 and over.

Invitation letters and visa support

The scope of participant invitation letter services in packages A and B is stated in the written registration confirmation. Package D excludes an invitation letter, which may be requested separately. A non-refundable service fee of €100 per person applies to a visa or travel invitation letter for a visitor or guest. This is neither an event admission charge nor an official visa fee.

An invitation letter does not guarantee a visa or entry into Türkiye. Travel requirements must be checked according to nationality and passport type. Türkiye's official e-Visa portal is www.evisa.gov.tr. Required passport information and document sharing will be arranged separately with the organisers after an invitation is requested.
